

ROYTON ROAD RUNNERS ELIGIBILITY FOR LONDON MARATHON PLACES

Every year, as an England Athletics-affiliated club, Royton Road Runners is granted one or more guaranteed places in the following year's London Marathon. These places are allocated by a draw which takes place at the club's annual Presentation Night in December. This draw is open to all club members who meet the following criteria:

- have entered & been rejected for a place in the main London Marathon ballot for the next race
- able to provide proof of rejection (i.e rejection e-mail or name/address slip along with rejection letter)
- are current 'first claim' members of RRR
- were RRR members at the time of entering the London Marathon ballot
- did not qualify for a 'Good For Age' place in the next race
- were not selected for one of the club places in the current year's London Marathon

If you have any questions about your eligibility for the draw, please get in touch
